Introduction:

Pam and Sam like going to the park. Do you like going to the park? What do you like doing at the park? Let's find out what Sam and Pam like doing.

Sam and Pam are going to the park with Tom.

“It is good to see the sunshine this morning,” says Mum.

“Go and have a good time.”

They will not drive.

Sam will ride his bike to the park.

Pam will scoot.

“I like going to the park,” says Sam.

“Woof,” says Jiff.

“Yes, Jiff can come too,” says Tom. “Jiff can run! Come on Jiff.”

At the park they ride up the hill.

The swing park is at the top of the hill.

Pam can see the swings.

Pam likes the swings.

She can go up, up, up.

Pam can see the farm. She can see the sheep and the barn.

Sam likes to swing on the bars.

Sam sees the slide.

“See me, Pam. See me, Dad!” he says.

“Whee!” Sam lands with a bump.

whee!

Pam and Sam have fun in the swing park.

Tom likes to see them have fun.

They run and jump and swing.

Jiff gets cross.

He cannot go on the swings or the slide.

He cannot go on the bars.

Jiff likes to look for dogs in the park. He likes big dogs. He sees a big dog.

Jiff runs off to see the big dog.

Jiff likes the big dog.

He runs and Jiff runs.

Then Tom says they must go back to Mum. They look for Jiff.

“Jiff, come here!” says Tom.

Jiff is lost!

“We must look for Jiff,” says Tom.

They look and look.

Then they see Jiff by the pond.

Jiff is looking at the ducks.

They are glad to see him.

“Come here, Jiff,” says Sam.

Sam is glad he is not lost.

Pam is glad to see him too.

Tom says it is time to go.

They must get back for lunch.

Off they go.

Sam rides his bike.

Pam scoots.

Jiff runs.

“We have had a good time at the park,” says Sam and Pam.

“Woof,” says Jiff.
