Practice these words before you read the book. You can sound them out.

Introduction:

Jack has a problem with his sheep. How will he solve it?

Jack has six sheep.

The sheep feed and sleep at
the top of the hill.

Jack has been to see his sheep.

Jack is cross.

Two sheep have bad legs.

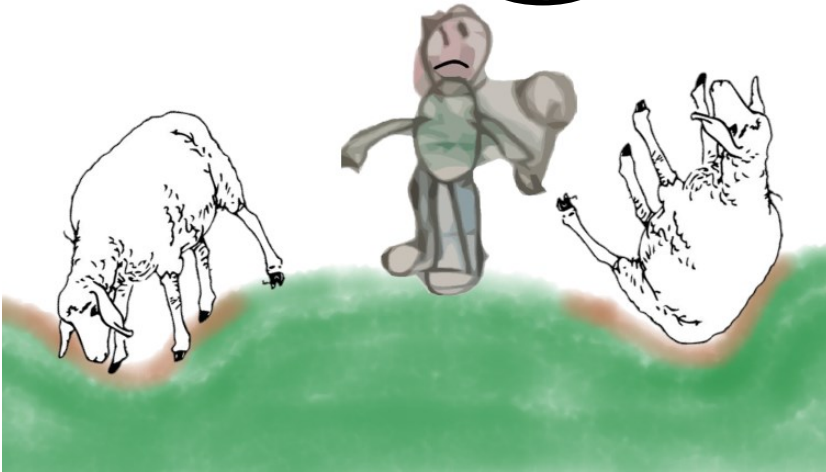

The sheep fell in a pit.

A sheep must not get stuck in a pit.

It is not good!

I can not see the sheep on the hill.

Jack will get sticks.

He will get mud.

Jack has a stick
and mud shed.

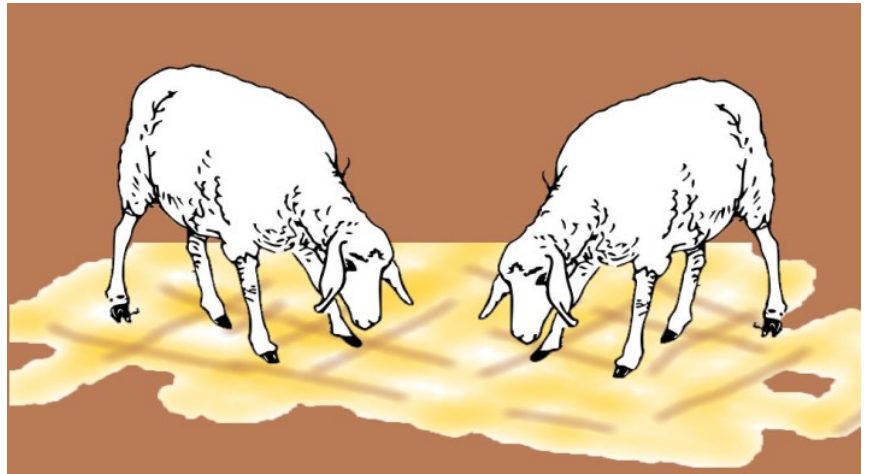

The moon will soon be up.

Jack will go up the hill to get the sheep.

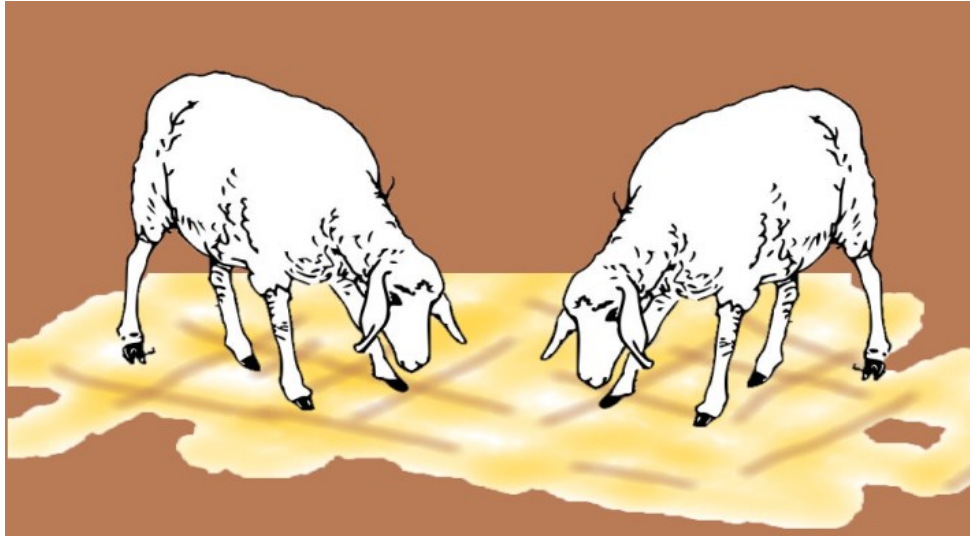

The sheep can sleep in the shed. It is good in the shed.

Jack shuts up the shed.

Look! The sheep have room to sleep in the shed.

The sheep will not get bad legs
in the shed.

Jack can go to sleep in his room in his mud and stick hut.

The sun is up. Jack gets up.

The sheep can go back up on to the hill top to feed.

At the top of the hill, Jack sits on a rock to look at his sheep.

Jack is glad.

He has a mud and stick shed.

The sheep will not get stuck in the pit.

The end!
