Introduction:

Jack needs food but he cannot find a buck. What will he do?

Jack must get food.

Jack will track a buck.

Jack will go up to the green tree at the top of the hill.

Jack is cross.

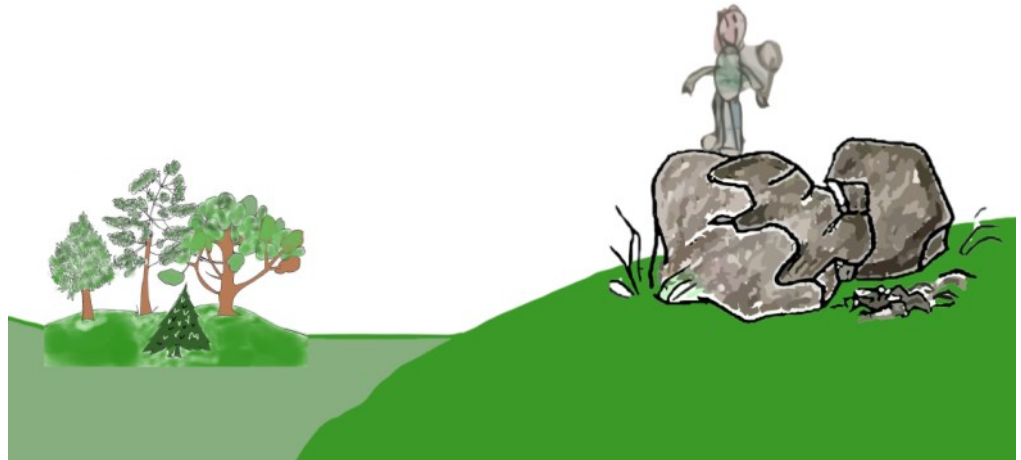

He can not see a buck!

Jack runs up the track to a big rock.

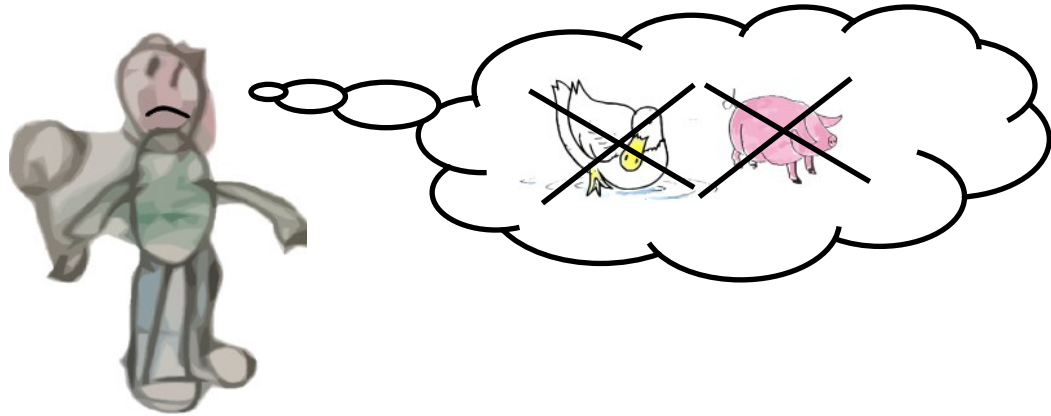

He looks. Can he see a pig?

Can he see a duck?

No. No pigs and no ducks!

No food!

Jack is cross, cross, cross.

It has been a bad week.

Jack has not got a big buck.

He has not got a fat pig.

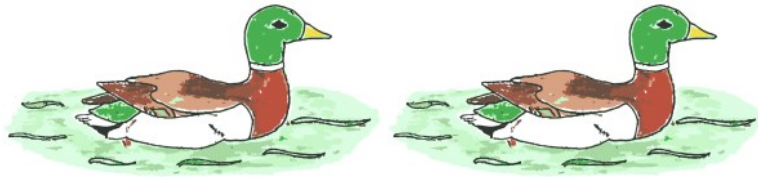

He has not got a duck.

Jack can not have food.

Bill will go up the hill.

Bill will look. Can he see food?

He can see two green ducks.

Bill gets the ducks.

Jack meets Bill on the hill.

Bill gives Jack a green and black duck.

Jack is glad.

He runs back to his mud hut.

Jack will cook his green duck.

Jack gets his big spoon.

It is good food.

Jack is not cross.

He is glad he has
food in his mud hut.

Jack must sleep.

He will sleep
in his bedroom
in the mud hut.
