Reading for Fluency

Practice reading these words before you read this book. We have met them all before and you can sound them out.

Read them three times.

i sland	puff

Jack chats to Bill. The sun is up. The wind is good.

Jack and Bill will go back on the ship. Jack and Bill will go to the island.

Can we sleep
on the island?

Yes!

Bill helps Jack to pack the chest on to the ship.

Jack packs the spoons and the dish. Jack packs good food. He has rabbit.

Jack jumps in to the ship.

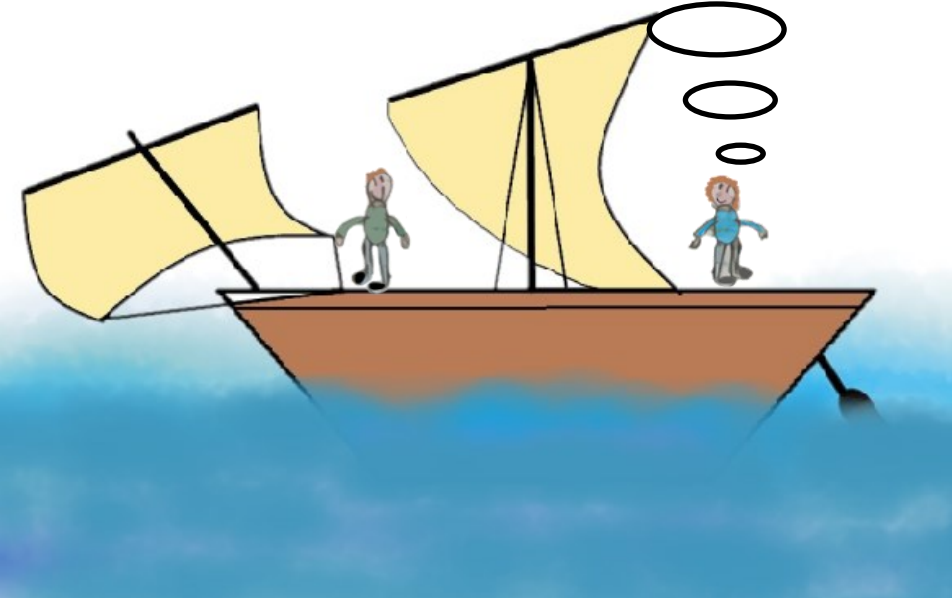

He gives Bill a hand to get in.

The wind puffs.

Puff. Puff.

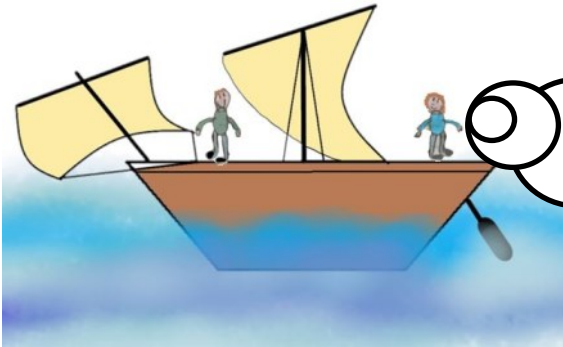

Jack is glad to be on the ship.

Off we go!

Bill can see the island.

Look! I can see the island!

The wind gets bad. Puff! Puff!

The rocks!

We must go back!

Yes! We must not crash! It is bad to crash!

The wind puffs the ship back.

Puff! Puff!

Jack and Bill jump off the ship
and swim to the land.

Jack and Bill swim and swim.

Jack lands on the sand.

Bill lands on the sand.

Jack is sad.

We will go to the island
soon!

The moon is up.

Jack and Bill must go to bed.

We must have a good wind!

The end!
