

Pippin the kitten

Reading Made Simple

ea

Text written by J. Arrowsmith 2023

Photograph supplied by D. Balz and used with permission

© J. Arrowsmith 2023

All rights reserved.

www.readingmadesimple.weebly.com

This book practices the sound

ai

These are new words. You can sound them out.

Practice them on flashcards before you read this book

kitten

sharp

chase

wags

Introduction:

I have a kitten. His name is Pippin. I love Pippin.

Find out why in this story!

I have a kitten.

Pippin is his name.

Pippin has two ears.

He has 4 legs.

Pippin the kitten likes to run.

I like Pippin the kitten.

Pippin likes me.

In the morning I get up.

Pippin the kitten jumps on my bed.

“Good morning, Pippin,”

At bedtime, the kitten must go to sleep.

Pippin has a good bed to sleep in.

Pippin likes to sit on my lap.

“prrrrr, prrrrr,” says Pippin the kitten.

The kitten has sharp .

I am glad to let the kitten sit on my lap.

Pippin likes to ride on my back!

Pippin likes to chase things.

I have a  .

I let Pippin get the  .

I have a  .

Pippin likes to chase the  .

I have a good time with Pippin
the kitten.

I like to see Pippin the kitten have fun.

If Pippin is sad, he wags his tail.

Wag, Wag.

Then I run to give Pippin a hug.

Then Pippin says, “prrrr, prrrr.”

Pippin the kitten is the best kitten!

