

Reading Made Simple

Level 2

Name _____

Underline all the letters 'oo' in red. Then read the passage.

oo

Jack had to go to school. Jack liked school. He had on his boots and green jacket. He got his cap from the hook and packed his books in his rucksack.

He met Sid by the pool. They ran until they got to the school. Jack stood with Sid until the bell rang. Then they went into school.

Soon it was lunch time. Jack had his food in his bag. He sat in the playground to eat. A big bird on the roof looked at Jack's lunch. It swooped to get the food.

"This is my food," said Jack to the bird, "shoo, shoo, shoo!" The bird took a crisp and went back to the roof.

Soon school ended and Jack and Sid ran back home.

Practice these words:

playground

rucksack

Now answer these questions with a sentence.

1. Where did Jack have to go?

Jack had to go _____

2. What did Jack have on?

Jack had on his _____

3. Who did he meet?

4. Where did he meet him?

5. Where was the bird?

6. What did it do?

7. What did Jack say to the bird?

Do you remember? Verbs are doing words. They show action.

Here are some more verbs:

likes packs stands has runs sits swoops

Write them into these sentences.

1. Jack _____ to go to school.
2. Jack _____ his rucksack.
3. Jack _____ in the playground.
4. Jack _____ in the playground to have his lunch.
5. Jack _____ his food in his bag.
6. A big bird _____ to get Jack's food.
7. Jack _____ back home.

More Verbs

Last lesson we learnt how we can add 'ed' to some verbs to show that they happened in the past. Here are some more we can add 'ed' to:

Now	In the past
like	liked
pack	packed
swoop	swooped

Some verbs change completely. Can you finish the table?

Now	In the past
I run	I ran
I sit	I _____
I stand	I _____
he has	he _____

You know how to use them as you use them when you talk.

to two too

Choose the correct word to complete these sentences. 'To' is used for a place. 'Too' means 'as well', or we use it to say things like 'too big', or 'too hard'.

1. Jack went _____ school.
2. Sid has _____ dogs.
3. Jack ran and Sid ran _____.
4. Dan will get _____ sticks from the woods.
5. Jill's jacket has _____ pockets.
6. Mum said it was _____ soon for lunch.
7. Shall we go _____ the pool for a swim as it is hot?
8. It is _____ hot today!
9. Jack and Fred got in _____ the truck.
10. Do not be _____ long!

flood blood

There are only two words that have 'oo' saying 'u'.

You will need to learn these two!

Write a sentence for each word.

Finish these sentences:

1. There might be a _____ if there is a lot of rain.

2. There might be some _____ if you cut yourself.

3. Gran forgets to turn the tap off and there is a _____.

4. _____ is red.