

The Robin

Reading Made Simple

y(ee)

Text written by J. Arrowsmith © 2022

Photos pages 1 and 4 © J. Arrowsmith © 2022

All other photos Creative Commons.

All rights reserved.

Talk about these words with your child before reading this book. You can sound them out.

indoors in doors

gobbles

finish finishes

This book is to be read after the sound

y (ee)

has been learnt.

These words are odd words. Learn them on flashcards before reading this book. Listen! They rhyme.

where

Robin sits in the garden singing.

Robin is happy today. It is a sunny day. He can see Tom out in the garden digging.

Robin hopes he might get something to eat for tea.

Robin hops from tree to tree, keeping a look out for Tom.

Tom turns the soil over as he digs.

Robin sings a shrill song.

Tom likes to hear Robin sing.

Then Robin gets brave and sits on Tom's spade.

Tom finishes his digging and goes indoors.
Robin hops onto the soil and looks for food.
He pokes the soil with his beak.
'Where is my tea?' he thinks.

Robin has found something!

He tugs and tugs and gobbles it up!

One happy Robin!

Then off he flies, back up into the tree.

Robin Facts

- v Robins are small round birds.
- v They have a red tummy.
- v Robins live in woods, parks and gardens.
- v You can see them all year round.
- v Male Robins sing all year around.
- v They eat insects, seeds, slugs,

and rotten

- v They will sit by a pond to catch flies in summer.

