Tom and his wife will go and see the sports in the park.

It is not far to go.

The sports will be at lunchtime.

They will take lunch with them.

Pam and Sam will go too.

“Woof!”

“No, Jiff cannot come,” says
Mum.

“It is time to go,” says Tom.

We must not be late. We must pack up the truck and be off.

They put the lunch in the back of the black truck.

“Jump into the truck!” says Tom.

Tom and his wife jump into the truck.

Pam, Sam and Jiff jump into the back of the truck.

“I like going to see the sports,”
says Sam.

“Yes,” says Tom. “Bill and Ted will be running. Bill thinks he will win.”

They drive to the park.

They park in the car park.

“I can see the sports,” says Pam.

“We can sit here in the sunshine and have lunch” says
Mum.

“Here is a pie.”

Mum gives Pam and Sam a pie.

“I can see Bill,” says Tom.

“He is running well.”

Bill runs by.

Tom waves at him.

“Run Bill, run!” says Tom.

Then Ted runs by.

Sam waves at him.

“Run Ted, run!”

says Sam.

Mum gives Pam and Sam a cake.

Then Bill trips. He can not run.

Ted keeps running.

Ted wins and gets the prize.

Bill is sad he did not win but thinks that Ted is good at running.

“You are a good sport,” says Tom.

“My leg is bad,” says Bill.

“I cannot drive.”

“I will take Bill back to the farm in the black truck,” says Tom.

Mum, Sam and Pam pack the lunch things in the back of the black truck.

“No room for us and Bill,” says Tom. “Ted will take Mum and Pam back to the farm.”

“Ted can fix it!” says Mum.
