Introduction:

Sam wants to go the moon in his rocket! What will happen?

Tom gave Sam a big box.

Sam will make it into a rocket.

Sam cuts a hole for the door.

He puts on his boots.

He gets inside the rocket.

“I will go to the moon,” he says.

“Take your lunch with you,” said Mum.

Sam takes a bag of sandwiches.

“Be back for bedtime,” said Dad.

“I will,” said Sam.

“Bring me some moon rock,” said Pam.

“Woof,” said Jiff.

“Jiff said bring him a bone,” said Mum.

Sam waves and off he goes.

Up, up, up goes the rocket, up to the moon.

Sam lands on the moon.

He looks up. It is dark.

He picks up some moon rock. He puts it in the rocket.

“I must have lunch,” he thinks.

He is glad to have his sandwiches. He is glad to see that they are jam sandwiches. His best sort.

Sam thinks of Mum.

He thinks of Dad.

He thinks of Pam.

He thinks of them at home.

“I will go home,” he thinks. “It must be late.”

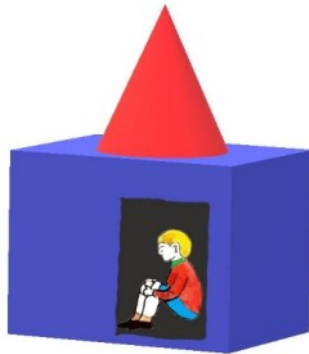

Sam gets back in his rocket and
ZOOM, he goes back home.

He lands with a bump in his bedroom.

Pam runs to see him.

Jiff runs to see him.

Mum and Dad run to see him.

“Did you get moon rock?” said Pam.

“Yes, here it is,” said Sam.

“Woof,” said Jiff.

“No Jiff. I did not get a bone.”

“Is it fun on the moon?” said Dad

“Yes,” said Sam, “but, home is best. I like my bed!”
