

At the Seaside

Reading Made Simple

ea

Text written by J. Arrowsmith 2022
Illustrated by J. Arrowsmith © 2022
All rights reserved.

This book practices the sound

ea

Some new words are introduced throughout this book. You can sound them all out.

shining

rockpool    rock pool

catch        fetch

splash

when

sandwich    sand wich

picnic    pic nic

Introduction: Have you ever been to the seaside?

Let us find out what happens when Pam and Sam go to the seaside.

The sun is shining and it is hot.

Tom, June, Pam and Sam are going to the seaside in the car.

“Have you got the picnic lunch, June?” says Tom.

“Yes, I have,” says June.

“Let us go then,” says Tom.

shining

At the beach they park the car and go onto the sand.

“This is a good spot,” says Tom.

Tom and June sit on the beach.

June reads a book. Tom likes to see the waves on the sea.

Sam and Pam like to dig in the sand.

They each have a big spade. Sam has a blue one, and Pam a pink one.

Deep, deep, deep they dig.

Then, Sam sees some rocks. He runs to the rocks. Pam runs too.

Sam looks into a rockpool.

“I am going to get my net,” says

Sam. “I can see a crab.”

He runs back to fetch it.

rockpool

fetch

Jiff comes to see the crab.

“No, Jiff, no!” says Pam.

Sam gets his net and runs back to the pool.

He dips it into the water but he cannot catch the crab.

Pam puts some shells in her pink bucket.

catch

Pam and Sam like to go in the sea.

They like to splash in the water.

“Come in the sea, Sam.” says Pam.

In they run. They jump and splash.

Jiff likes to go in the water too.

He makes a big splash.

“Do not splash me so, Jiff,” says

Sam as he runs back to the sand.

splash

“The water is not deep,” says Pam.

“I shall swim.”

“I will swim too,” says Sam.

“Let us swim to the rocks.”

Jiff swims too, but he cannot swim to the rocks. It is too far.

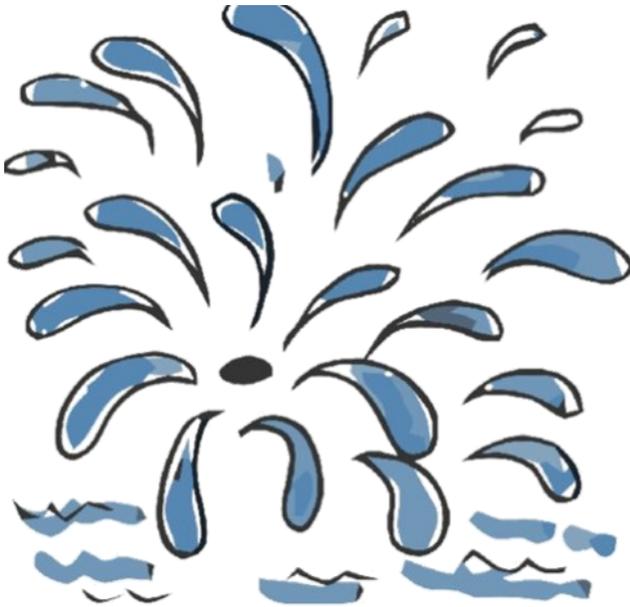

Sam gets onto the rocks and jumps
into the water.

“See me jump, Pam,” he says.

“I can jump too,” says Pam.

SPLASH!

“Look!” says Sam. “The tide is coming in. We must get back to the beach.”

When they get back, they have a picnic on the beach. They each have a ham sandwich and a pork pie.

Mum has made cakes too. They have a drink of cool lemonade.

when	picnic	sandwich
------	--------	----------

It is time to go home. They start to pack up.

“It has been fun on the beach,” says Sam.

“Yes, we have had lots of fun,” says Pam.

“That is good,” says Tom. “We will come back soon.”

They get in the car and drive back to the farm.